Description:

Explore the hidden history of Kyrgyzstan in one of the scenic Saimaluu Tash site (meaning embroidered or carved stones) located high up in the mountains with over 10 000 carved black and white rock paintings scattered around the mountaintop. Reveal these sacred displays of offerings of the ancient people, the petroglyphs and multi-image compositions that date from the early 2000 BC to 3000 BC of the Neolithic and Bronze Ages, and up into the Middle Ages (8th century AD).

| Time | Activity |
|--------|---|
| Day 1. | Jalal Abad – Kazarman - Saimaluu Tash Meet your driver and head on to Kazarman village on this mountain road over the Kaldama pass standing at 2779 meters, 4hours. After heaving hearty home cooked lunch at Kazarman village, transfer to the trailhead and meet the crew. Our guide will demonstrate some basic rules of horse riding. We cross the river and ride deep into the mountain along the gushing stream. After three hours of riding, we arrive at Saimaluu Tash Site standing on mountaintop. Set up your camp. Our guide will share lots of the interesting stories and legends. Hike around the area to take a photo of panoramic mountain views. Dinner and overnight in a tent. |
| Day 2. | Saimaluu Tash – Kazarman – Jalal Abad city Breakfast. Morning hike to explore the petroglyphs that include approximately 40,000 drawings scattered on this valley. Around 11:00 am, we ride about 2-3 hours downhill with the same trail we had come yesterday. Meet your car and drive to Kazarman village with the lunch stop. After that, we continue our drive to Jalal Abad city. |
